

This technology is long overdue. It will bring immediate competition to cable and telephony and may help bring down the cost of those services. Where cable is not regulated, they've gone from $14.95 to $38.00 in 13 years. Unacceptable. I urge the FCC to relax rule 15 to allow this technology to flourish.